SERMON NOTES

Close Encounters With God: A Sufferer's Last Hope

When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed." Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering. (Mark 5: 27-29, NIV)

He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering." (Mark 5:34, NIV)

1. A heart that is _____. Our desperation for release from our suffering affects the entire focus of everything in our lives. It opens us up to the possibility that Jesus IS the only source of healing.

2. A heart that is _____. When we dare to reach out to Jesus; when we dare to put HIS power at work in our lives, things happen!

3. A heart that is _____. When we accept our brokenness before Christ, we can be picked up by him, completely healed, and then we will then begin to notice those around us who are broken and in need of the Savior.

4. A heart that is _____. When we tell the truth, when we live by faith, we create an environment of hope.

5. A heart that is _____. When Jesus touches our hearts, our hearts are set free!

*"When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me."
Henry Francis Lyte, 1847*
